Starring

- Ian Chappell, former Australian Test Cricket captain, first-class snooker player and patron of the ABSC
- Peter Gilchrist, reigning and three times World Billiards Champion, world record holder and world number #1 ranked player for most of the past decade
- Joe Minici, 14 times NSW Billiards Champion, Multiple Australian title holder in Billiards and Snooker, Hall of Fame inductee
- Roger Farebrother, multiple NSW and Australian title holder in snooker, multiple 147 breaker, Hall of fame inductee
- Di Merritt, Reigning and multiple NSW Ladies Billiards champion.

The evening will be hosted at the historic and elegant Royal Automobile Club, on the harbour behind the Opera House, entry via 89 Macquarie Street.

In addition to the trophy awards and linen tablecloth dinner and wines we have recruited some of the top personalities from the world of cuesports to provide an evening of entertainment, with player interviews, exhibitions and matches from the top line players. Coffee and tea will be served in the RACA Billiards room during the exhibition.

Club members who competed in the inaugural City Interclubs Snooker competition can compete to play matches against the stars so bring a cue or use one of the RACA cues.

There will be memorabilia, raffles and snooker equipment to take "straight to the pool room". Any money raised will be used to promote cuesports events in Australia. Space is strictly limited and bookings are essential.
